Disbursements

These are extra to the costs outlined in the pricing structure.

These fees have to be paid for a funeral to take place. Disbursements are fees which Eric F Box Funeral Directors pay out on behalf of a family for the funeral to take place. Each disbursement fee will be itemized on the funeral estimate and funeral account.

Amounts are out of the control of Eric F Box Funeral Directors as they are set by third parties – the local council, the church and the British Medical Association

It is impossible to estimate disbursements as each crematoria, cemetery and church have different fees. However, below are the standard disbursement fees associated with cremation and burial and a rough cost of each disbursement.

Cremation Disbursements

Cremation Fee at the Crematorium.	Average £490 - £590
Doctors' Fee for the completion of the cremation certificates.	Set Amount of £142.00
Minister's Fee for taking the service	From £108.00
Organist's Fee at the crematorium if the organ is required.	Average £50.00 - £70.00
Church Fees for holding a service in a church	Average £150 - £300

Burial Disbursements

Burial Fees at the cemetery/churchyard	From £500 upwards
Minister's Fee for taking the service	From £108.00
Church Fees for holding a service in a church	Average £150 - £300

Burial of Cremated Remains Disbursement

Burial Fee at cemetery/churchyard	From £110 upwards
Minister's Fee at cemetery	From £35.00

Please Note

Prices shown in this disbursement price structure are correct at time of going to print – 1st October 2008, but are subject to alterations without notice at any time. The prices quoted may in certain circumstances vary from the published price list.

THE SIMPLE FUNERAL

The simple funeral as defined by the National Association of Funeral Directors Code of Practice
